REAL LOVE #25 (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Al Harvey (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There s a focus on drama that borders the unimaginable. No one is faithful at first glance. No one communicates. Everyone makes bad decisions based on pretty faces. But there s always a happy ending (for some definition of happiness). I love it! These books are funny because they re so old-fashioned but they re also a really good primary recourse for anyone studying early 20th century pop culture. My inner historian basically can t get enough of them. My favorite thrift store finds are these old comics because they re both fun to read and functional in my nerdy studies. April 1949 s Real Love #25. The art s a bit weird but it works for this plot about a young woman who is mistaken for her celebrity father s girlfriend in the newspapers. In this same issue, you can also check out Dangerous Dates about a young woman who lets her roommate talk her into going on dates for money. Have you read any romance comics in your travels through comics, fellow fans? What are some of your favorites? These books are constantly updated with the best version Enjoy a nostalgic trip down memory lane with the best titles from the golden age of comics. Escamilla Comics has lovingly remastered these timeless classics with vivid color correction, image restoration and has also added an enhanced reading experience with Kindle Panel View The comic reprints from Calumet History and Hobby are reproduced from actual classic comics, and sometimes reflect the imperfection of books that are decades old.
