Excerpt from Speech of Mr. John Duer: Delivered in the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of New York, on Friday, the 29th of September, 1843, in Support of the Resolutions, Offered by the Judge Oakley That the proposed resolutions have grown out of a recent transaction in this city, the unfortunate cause of so much agitation and controversy in the Church, is riot denied. It is apparent on their face - it was confessed by themover. As this transaction has suggested the measures now proposed, it is from the circumstances that attend ed, and the consequences that followed it, that our chief arguments in their favour must be derived; but, in urging these arguments as applicable to the merits of the resolutions, it is not at all necessary to inquire into those of the transaction itself, still less to express any opinion on the propriety of the decision that resulted in the ordination of Mr. Carey. The topics are in themselves entirely distinct, and that distinction, if I am permitted, I mean carefully to...
