

Free To Be Me: Celebrating 21 Years of Freedom Youth (Paperback)

By Rosa Fanti, Lori Streich

Tangent Books, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Freedom Youth celebrated its 20th Birthday in 2015. Rosa didn't want this important milestone to pass unnoticed, so we started talking with each other and then with Off the Record and Outstories about it. This led us to approach the Heritage Lottery Fund. They generously agreed to fund an oral history project to tell Freedom's story in the words of the people who set it up, who have been or are its members, and who have worked for Freedom over the years. We interviewed 25 people, and heard from many more past and present members who filled in surveys. They spoke or wrote about the difference that being a part of Freedom has made to their lives, and how it has supported and enabled young people to be out, and to feel comfortable with their sexuality and identity. Most of all, Freedom has always been a place where young people can just enjoy themselves as themselves - whatever their identities. Identity is an important issue for young people, and for Freedom as a whole. Over its 21 years, the whole question of identity has...
