Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Le Portrait en France Des considerations philosophiques, auxquelles on peut trouver d illustres parrains, ont paru consacrer cette inferiorite du portrait. Aux epoques d imagination opulente et de ferveur religieuse, aux epoques ou l art apparait comme l expression spontanee d une sensibilite collective, a quoi seul il peut donner la conscience de soi, il ne s attarde pas aux minuties du portrait, aux gentilleses du paysage ou du genre. Il cherche a fixer sous une forme magnifique et populaire un reve unanime. Il est l ex-voto d un peuple ou l image de sa puissance, personniee dans le Prince ou le Heros national. Or, aux yeux du philosophe, l art qui nait dans ces moments d enthousiasme ou les races croient a leur destinee et a leurs dieux, a plus de grandeur, une plus haute valeur humaine que celui qui, s etant developpe dans une civilisation critique et mercantile, s ingenie dans l analyse et, plutot qu un ideal commun, exprime la vision particuliere qu un artiste isole a de l univers et des hommes Le gouti, la vogue du portrait apparaissent alors comme un symptome de decadence, comme une preuve que la force creatrice d une ecole et d un peuple est en train de decroitre. Ingenieuse doctrine qui peut servir a justifier la decadence de l art architectural et decoratifau temps ou nous sommes.
