NAB END AND BEYOND: The Road to Nab End and Beyond Nab End

By WILLIAM WOODRUFF

Condition: New. William Woodruff, the son of a weaver, was born on a pallet of straw at the back of the mill and two days later his mother was back at work. Life was extremely tough for the family in 1920s Blackburn -- a treat was sheep's head or cow heel soup -- and got worse when his father lost his job. At 16, William left Blackburn for London, where he found filthy tenements and such squalor as only a great city can conceal. He found work in an iron foundry and lodgings with a beer-swilling landlady and her family -- a predatory daughter and a tattooed madman of a son with whom he had to share a bed. Then, at night school, William discovered a love of learning, which eventually took him to Plater College, Oxford. As Mosley's blackshirts provoke fighting on the streets, he witnesses the courage of ordinary people in the face of war: a war in which he himself will soon be fighting . . . Extraordinarily well written and vividly told, his book is rich in characters, facts, atmosphere and indomitable spirit. It is absolutely fascinating as a social as well as a family history....

Reviews

It is really an remarkable ebook that we actually have ever read through. I actually have study and i also am confident that i am going to gonna study once more yet again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
