Excerpt from The Defense of the Government of Guatemala Before the Central-American Court of Justice at Cartago, in the Case of Honduras By order of the Court, I have the honor to inform you, and this must be construed as a formal transmittal for the purposes of the answer to be presented before that Court, that a claim has been filed against the Government of Your Excellency, which is literally as follows: Telegram deposited at Tegucigalpa on July 10th, 1908, at P. M., received at Cartago on July 11th, Secretary of the Central American Court of Justice, Cartago, Costa Rica, I request you to present before the Honorable Court the following statement: The Government of Honduras, constitutionally established since the first of February of the present year and officially recognized by all Nations, respectfully appears before you in formal complaint against the Governments of El Salvador and Guatemala, by virtue of Art. 14 of the Convention that created that Court, and basing its claim upon the following antecedents and facts: 1st. Since the political change took place in Honduras with the downfall of General Manuel Bonilla, the said Governments have shown a marked prejudice against the one that was established in Honduras, believing that it is connected with that of Nicaragua and controlled by persons they hold as their enemies. That prejudice was! About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
