

Leftover Women Chinese Edition

By Xi Zhang

Maple Media Co. Paperback. Condition: New. 428 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. This book innovatively explores the topic of leftover-women, a topic of much debate in Asian societies, through the love stories of three typical Chinese leftover women living in Boston, America. In exquisite and appealing language, the author creates vivid characters with splendid dialogues and psychological descriptions. The whole story, featured with intricate but fascinating details, reproduces the true situation of love and marriage of middle-aged Chinese women in America today. In an era when love and marriage is more of a trifling matter with a great wave of cyber love and blind dates, the book will touch its readers deeply, and guide them to understand themselves in their quest for true love. The book is rather comprehensive, touching upon and exploring various topics, including leftover-women, cyber love, green cards, immigration, provision for the aged, childrens education and how Chinese women establish themselves and start their own business in America. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
