Follow the struggle of the Starstrike siblings adventures through space as they try to undermine the corrupted universal rule for the Judges. Mysteries and plots are uncovered along with a hidden power struggle while new friendships and romance will be forged. The universe is in a dark place where power is the key and the Judges hold all of them. Once a peacekeeping force but now the Judges make the rules to their own benefit. Others have tried to overthrow them in the past but their rebellion has always ended in failure. All in not lost for those who crave freedom since it has been written many times that a heart will come along to change the fate of the war and that a ripple in a pond can grow to be a wave in an ocean. Two of these ripple are Michael Starstrike and his younger sister Jay, both of which are gifted in different way. Michael has large white wing on his back which have grown with him from birth allowing him flight as well as keen marksmanship. Jay on the other hand has the ability to teleport as well as a keen mind, capable of learning many things quickly. Their closest friends are Max, a telepath and Michaels mentor, Jackson, a man who looks far younger than he is with many magical abilities, and Tyler, a human/feline species who is also Jays love interest.
