Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Captain John McBee's war in 1863 starts on an icy road in Virginia and reaches through four states to end brutally in the frozen mountains of southeastern Kentucky. In January, three dozen new recruits arrive to northern Virginia, green as grass, needing a firm hand at drill. Meanwhile, a hundred miles away in Lexington, Faith Samuelson is an uninvited houseguest about to give birth to twins. After General Stonewall Jackson's tragic death in May, his burial brings thousands of mourners to Lexington, including Captain McBee and the Confederate officer who is Faith's other husband. While the army is recovering from its defeat at Gettysburg, Captain McBee's chance afternoon encounter on a train with the Confederacy's Secretary of State, Judah Benjamin, turns into a frenzied night of fight and flight. On loan to General Bragg's Army of Tennessee, General Longstreet's Corps, including the Bloody Fifth Texas Infantry, takes a nine-day train ride, ending in Georgia at Chickamauga Station. There the Texas Brigade is again thrown into battle, offered the chance to redeem themselves as Lee's Grenadiers. As snow falls, intrigue hounds Captain McBee and Faith when a Union spy master matches...
