General Accounting Office, 2003 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)54068436 Subject: Federal aid to research -- Moral and ethical aspects -- United States. Excerpt: . . . While Education, NIH, and NSF do not post research results on their Web sites, they post a project abstract written at the time of award stating how the research will be conducted and what researchers hope to accomplish. In November 2002, the Education Sciences Reform Act of 2002 (Pub. L. No. 107-279) established the Institute of Education Sciences and directed it to widely disseminate the findings and results of scientifically valid research in education. An Education official told us that after the members of the Institutes National Board of Educational Sciences have been appointed and confirmed, Education will consider how best to fulfill this requirement, particularly for the results of Institute-funded research that have not been peer reviewed. The official noted that the Institutes National Center for Education Evaluation currently disseminates the results of research performed under contract either through research publications or through its Web site after the results have been...
