He was ordained in a Baptist church and has spent many days ministering in prisons, drug rehabilitation centers, nursing homes, street witnessing ministries, and conducting Christian counseling for adults. He believes the biggest obstacle in the church today is getting Christians to study the Bible on a daily basis. Mr. Gardner studied ministry at a local Bible college in Philadelphia and intends to continue his education in theology and Christian counseling. He is presently a life skills teacher for a non-profit organization assisting ex-offenders and incarcerated adults in learning from a Christian perspective how to reenter society as productive men and women transformed by the Word of God.
