It s amazing what one county has to offer, with its rolling green hills, stunning beaches and quaint villages Devon is a goldmine of natural beauty just waiting to be explored. Devon offers Britain at its most lush and charming through to its most bleak and impressive. The stark uplands of Dartmoor are in easy reach of the sunny delights of the southern coast, and even the odd palm tree. Resorts like Torquay offer a retro feel, while the more historic Dartmouth is rather quietly charming. The north coast and its Atlantic rollers cater to the new surfing passion, particularly around Croyde Bay. Elsewhere is some of the prettiest countryside you could hope to see. Stroll it, ride it (by bike or horse), even walk it with a llama in tow. From the top of Dartmoor to the sunny coves of the south coast, really get to grips with what Devon has to offer Adventure activities listings galore with top tips on where to take the kids river rafting, cycling, rock climbing, surfing and many more Top ten listings for beaches, where to pitch your tent, the best local food, free stuff, big days out and many many more Perfect for families on a budget with listings on where to stay and what to do that won t break the bank.
