I had a thousand times had the thought of inquiring why you did not teach me 47 what I so often saw the two Fathers do who are in my cabin, who pray to God so long without moving their lips: I restrained myself, believing that if you had judged me capable, you would have taught me, and consequently that I must wait to be found worthy thereof. After that, the time was taken for this purpose; but extraordinary occupations coming upon him, one after the other, the matter dragged along. This good man perceived as much, and plainly suspecting, of his own accord, that there might be some ruse of the devil therein, he left in God s hands the care of his family, and in fact came to find us when we were least expecting him. Perhaps one will be glad to know some portion of the sentiments that our Lord gave him during this holy occupation; it will be seen that the Holy Ghost is everywhere the master of hearts. 1. All my life I have always been occupied; if I died at this hour, what profit would there be left to me for eternity, unless from the little that I have done for the salvation of 48 my soul since I have had the faith? The occupation which I am about to undertake will be forever profitable to me; I must then attend to it more mightily than ever...
