A deceased friend who became a guardian angel An inner journey of self-discovery Paul van den Berg is an accomplished sixty-year-old man. He grew up in a strict reformed family and has been struggling with his homosexuality ever since he can remember. By being hard on himself, never allowing any emotions and always maintaining a firm order throughout his life, true happiness has eluded him thus far. One day, he receives a phone call from Greece. A friend from his past has passed away and has named Paul as one of the beneficiaries in his will. Chaos strikes in his usually carefully structured life. Confused and anxious, he decides to travel to Greece. Once he arrives, Paul is subjected to an omnium gatherum of emotions, sadness and regret.
