

La búsqueda del ser en el Sufismo

By Arango, Pamela / Alfonso, Karla

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Editorial Académica Española | Un recorrido por la mística islámica | El sufismo suele entenderse como una corriente de pensamiento Oriental que propone una transformación o transmutación del hombre, otorgándole la autonomía de ejercer el control de su vida y hacerse responsable de la misma. De ahí que el problema central a desarrollar a lo largo del texto sea: ¿De qué manera el sufismo, en tanto que corriente de pensamiento, es una herramienta para la realización del Ser en el hombre? A través de cuatro capítulos que dan cuenta del contexto histórico, el concepto de la Vía, la Baraka, el Amor y la Muerte en el Sufismo. Resaltando la importancia en su parte heterodoxa, es decir, aquella que no está íntimamente ligada al Islam en cuanto a ritos, la obediencia a un texto sagrado y el sometimiento a Alá. Presentando el carácter autónomo que le asigna al hombre y del que la Filosofía hace tanta referencia, por medio de ideas que permean diversas culturas y al parecer resultan ser mucho más antiguas que el Islam. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: spa | 76 pp.
