By Kate CHEDGZOY.

Northcote House, Tavistock, 2000. Paperback. Condition: New. 1st Edition. 86pp Writers & Their Work Series [In stock in Australia now for immediate despatch] In a time exceptionally preoccupied with the relations between the personal and the political, sexuality and power, Measure for Measure is one of the most frequently staged and discussed of Shakespeare's plays. The reader is led carefully through some of Measure for Measure's most problematic moments, but the compelling theatrical pleasures offered by this strange and fascinating play are not overlooked. Kate Chedgzoy lectures in the Department of English and Comparative Literary Studies at the University of Warwick where she teaches Shakespeare and European Theatre.
