New Action Western Romance Birdy Madison Birdy Madison was on the run and in hiding. She was scared, hungry and alone. Somewhere on the hunt for her was Roy Woods, the cowboy she had fallen in love with and with whom she had moved out to this huge and frightening land called Arizona. Roy was staggeringly, good looking. He was the proverbial tall, dark and handsome man who swept women off their feet. Birdy had not seen the warning signs until it were too late and she was in a lawless land with a man who cared nothing for anything or anybody but his own needs and his own greed. She had set off on this adventure with high hopes. They would find some land, build a ranch, raise a family and live happily ever after. Through her rose coloured spectacles, she had seen this handsome hero of a man and followed him to the Wild West.
