It s a fresh take on the format; eastern art meets western storytelling for a fun book suitable for readers of any age. Samurai Chef tells the story of a cooking show where dishes are judged by the Samurai Chef, with his samurai sword! It begins as a simple competition, but takes a twist when the chefs add special ingredients to turn each dish into food monsters and judging into a real battle. What follows is an escalating contest between the Samurai Chef and each new dish, eventually bringing the attention of more threatening opponents in this action-comedy epic! This is a story that consisting of anthropomorphic characters in a unique setting. The book is presented as a reality television program in which teams of chefs prepare meals to take on the toughest food critic since Gordon Ramsay, the Samurai Chef himself! It s a contest that takes place whilst his old foe, Kamu, plots to assemble his own team of mercenary chefs in order to settle an old...
