Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Canadian Forum, Vol. 2: Toronto, October 1921 The bankruptcy of the Conservative party in Canada is well illustrated in the complexion of the new cabinet. Few of the talents are there represented. In a government with reasonable prospects of re-election, cabinet reconstruction before the election is naturally a small matter. Mr. Meighen, however, was in such case that wholesale changes were unavoidable. The new cabinet's journey should be comfortable as well as brief. Mr. King will never make progress by facing the- past. Whatever opinion one may entertain as to the place of Sir Wilfred Laurier in the history of Canada, this is not a time when electors are disposed to say their prayers to his image. We doubt if Quebec is disposed to do so. We know that the rest of Canada is not. Men are looking to the distressing conditions of to-day and to possibilities of better things tomorrow. They are asking for leaders who have ideals grateful memories they may have...
