Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Life, Adventures and Anecdotes of Beau Hickman, the Prince of American Bummers Perhaps an apology should be offered for imposing; these sketches of a useless life upon the public ed biographies should never be written of persons who, during their lives, neglected to make memoranda, or failed to preserve any data to insure exact truthfulness. In this instance the writer has had nothing of the kind to aid him, for the subject of these sketches was a professional man of leisure, and eschewed trouble and inconvenience. The main sources to draw from were the on dit of the town and general recollections. Of the country. The files of the National Republican? Washington Chronicle, Evening Star and the Capital. Also furnished many of the incidents contained in the following pages. It is hoped that the same excuse that justified their public generally in tolerating and patronizing so singular a character will serve as an apology for thus collecting the main incidents of his life.
