This information is a broad and brief overview of the topic of tea and a basic introduction to a simple process which is easy to do at home. Mostly it is a collection of recipes and general information about many popular herbs that are used for medicinal teas. It is my hope that interested readers like you will take this information as a starting point and be inspired to learn more about the topic. There are infinite variations in methodology and ingredients possible and this little book can only introduce a basic understanding which it is then up to you to build upon.
