Enter Vrandalin; a land where ancient powers stir, dark beasts prowl, forgotten lore returns, and those who are thought weak discover their strength. For over fifteen hundred years the kingdom of Vrandalin has withstood the might of the one enemy they had need to fear. Now a new threat arises. In the southeastern part of the land, a grim-looking newcomer arrives in the village of Varalel, bringing with him a warning of imminent ruin. Shortly afterward, Varalel is stormed, its folk scattered, and one man is separated from the woman he loves. Little else matters to Allon Bracken than reuniting with his wife. With nowhere else to turn, he must place his faith in a gruff, mysterious man he knows little of, and an unexpected comrade. But his road is a hard one, and will lead him into dangers and discoveries that will change everything. And for a former traveling trinket seller deemed village softhead by his peers, things are suddenly very horrible indeed. Or are they? It seems that chaos brings folk together. Joined to Allon's path by an inner impulse, he discovers a companionship he did not expect to find. He will need it. Great fantasy with plenty of adventure, intriguing characters and a well-thought plot!
