Courses are offered, with the following membership: Sculpturing wood and stone, 36 students; furniture making, 60; metal repousse work, 36; upholstery and tapestry, 45; machinists, 24; engraving and die sinking, 15; jewelry work, 5; metal turning and spinning, 16. Instruction is given daily from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., 1 hour being allowed for lunch, 6 days a week, 43 weeks a year, during a period of 5 years. In the third, fourth, and fifth year the daily instruction is extended to 7 p. m. Formerly the course was three years, but it has just been increased to 5, adding two special supplementary years of attendance, which are optional for specialization. The first three years, however, are necessary for graduation, which so trains a boy that he covers completely the term of his apprenticeship in the trade. In the beginning there was much objection by the trades unions to this claim, but at present they are thoroughly and fully in sympathy with the work. The general relation of academic training is one-half time during the first, second, and third years, the other half being devoted to trade practice; in the fourth and fifth years only one-fifth of the time is given to the academic work. The studies followed consist of the following: Art design, clay modeling, water color, industrial design, applied science, history of art, French, mathematics, bookkeeping, English and German as applied to the trade. The entrance requirements...
