Excerpt: .all the teachers in your county to become members of our State Association and that you have our proposed legislation discussed at your teachers meeting and institutes and at other gatherings where you may be able to have it placed on the program. I have been directed to respond whenever possible to calls to speak to teachers institutes and other important educational meetings upon Organization and Needed Legislation. Therefore, if you are planning a meeting and want a talk of this kind, I shall be pleased to hear from you. The cost to you will be my expenses. Come on, let us pull together and show the world what the superintendents and teachers of Illinois can do by team work. Yours respectfully, R. C. MOORE. Why Rural School Teachers Should Be interested in Pension Legislation Miss Katherine Moran of Freeport ing in the rural districts will count toward the twenty-five years of service, just the same as if they taught in the city. Therefore if such teachers can be kept in the rural schools a few years longer, these schools will reap the benefit of their experience, which will greatly increase the value of the rural school to the community. Neither must it be forgotten that city teachers sometimes return to the rural schools. It should therefore also be an object of the state to attract and retain this class of teachers in the rural schools, rather than to raise a barrier to keep...
