Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | The E- signature is the way how to protect yourself and your business | Breathing is a must for a surviving; the E- means is also a must for a success. Nothing can be done within the economic life circle without taking into consideration the importance of using the E- Means. Over the past decade , the International Community has recognised the revolution of using the electronic means as a medium for forming a contractual relationship. As a result of this revolution and to enhance community confidence in the use of information communication technology, many jurisdictions have implemented legislation aimed at addressing the legality and enforceability of electronic transactions. One important aspect of electronic contracting addressed is how an electronic document or contract can and should be signed. However, I thing the one who argues that anything created by human, the only one can breach is human is not necessary valid. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: english | 107 gr | 220x150x3 mm | 68 pp.
