Two First Ladies and a President: A Love Beyond Scorn (Paperback)

By Bhupat Rawal

Outskirts Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The White House Has Never Seen a Ticket Like This Before. In college, Harry Hanson, Barbara Nathan and Sarah Williams were so close they called themselves The Troika - threesome. Now, after drifting apart, the once romantically involved trio's political aspirations are about to bring them back together, all in the name of the Democratic party. But with Hanson's elevation to the Maryland governorship - and a presidential run looking likely - forces at work threaten to undermine their success. A rogue senator jealous of Hanson's rising star is plotting to stop the immensely talented and progressive politician's ascent - by any means necessary. Terrorists are scheming to destroy those closest to him. But the biggest challenge of all might be from within themselves. Can Nathan and Williams come to an understanding of their relationship with a man they both love? And even if they do, what will the rest of the world have to say about their controversial arrangement? A story of friendship, courage, and a most unconventional love, Two First Ladies and a President: A Love...
