Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Louisiana Conservationist, Vol. 39: March/April, 1987 Louisianans welcomed the Wildlife Restoration Act sponsored by the sportsmen-conservationists of the time and signed by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1937. The pittman-robertson Program (p-r) as it was commonly referred to was to account for the reestablishment and productivity of the dwindling wildlife in Louisiana and the needed protection of precious natural areas. The funding for Louisiana s many successful pro grams is shouldered entirely by sportsmen. Under the pittman-robertson Program, they pay an excise tax on all firearms and some sporting equipment which is routed through the U. 5. Fish and Wildlife Service and back to individual states. For every $3 of federal aid. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
