Brain Mill Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.When the cutie-pie was opened, the birds began to sing, and what they sang was glittery and savage and fearless and dangerous--be careful with this book. --Catherine Wagner, author of Nervous Device The fanged fairy of Emily Corwin s forest-mud-stained collection asserts and sings with short rhymes and glitter-spells, and just as you ve followed her into the deepest and darkest part of the woods, terrified, you re asked to run away together / and promise to never / do this heart-skipping thing / with anyone else. Don t be surprised when you find yourself answering yes, yes, yes. Confronting and darling, every word a perfect warm cirlet of pink blood, My Tall Handsome raids every crystal jar on the lace-topped vanity for truth, poison, and song until you can t remember why you ever thought pretty was better than powerful, sugar was better than bitter medicine, or dancing needed more music than your own voice. I sip the goblet down, tip it upside down / wear it as / a hat / I am a new shiny thing / and I steal you away from the hoopla hullabaloo rumpus You won t resist this kidnapping into the orchard, into the crabapple abracadabra--it is too crystalline a taking, and there are too many delicious chants to chant along the way.
