Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Wisconsin Arbor and Bird Day Annual, 1908 It is earnestly requested that teachers enter into the spirit of this election and endeavor to have the children vote understandingly for the power of their choice. To this end it would be well to have the children gather and bring to the school the powers obtainable and from which the choice is likely to be made. The habits, manner of growth, and life of each power should be discussed to determine which one best typifies the Badger State. If teachers through the instruction given children preceding Arbor Day, and the exercises in the school house, are able to arouse a more sympathetic and thorough interest on the part of pupils and parents in the care and culture of trees, much will be done toward making secure the forestry movement which is now being attempted by the state and national governments. As the Nation grows older and the states become more densely populated, our timber regions are steadily diminishing. If a supply of timber adequate to our needs is to...
