In an attempt to help her get her life together, her brother, Peter, and a silent partner set up a small cafe just for Mia . something she s always dreamt of. Possibly giving her a new lease on life. On the other side of town, Nicholas father, Reynold has plans of his own, trying to uncover a long lost secret that s about to turn, not only his own world around, but causing a rippling effect that will touch Mia and his son Nicholas. Mia, trying to stay away from the likes of that wealthy world and the negatives that come with it, once again has it all thrown right back in her path when Nicholas returns and the secrets that have been in the past are now in full view, confronting them all. For both Nicholas and Mia, trying to keep away from each other is proving to be their biggest challenge yet. Once again, obstacles and social status are keeping them apart, but their love for each other is growing day by day. Will their love be enough to get them through the torment, the lies and the challenges?.
