At the age of ninety-one, Leatrice Mae Mitchell Freeman looks back at the life lessons she s learned and imparts wisdom about what s truly important. Her inspirational thoughts reflect a life devoted to God and full of love and laughter. In Feelings, Leatrice tackles a variety of topics, including friendship, faith, love, graciousness, marriage, frustration, aging, joy, motherhood, and the challenges of growing up. She attributes every blessing in her life to the Creator. For instance, in describing the construction of a church, she ties each step into the lessons the Bible has to teach about unity, righteousness, and redemption. Mrs. Freeman s joy in the Lord and all his creations is infectious. Her faith shines in every word she writes. Leatrie (also known as (Lee) by her beloved 99 year old husband and (Mae) by family and most friends) opens up about the challenges of caring for loved one with Alzheimer s disease. She captures the feelings of fear and anxiety many Alzheimer s patients feel and reflects on the fragility and sanctity of the human mind. Feelings is often bittersweet but also celebrates the beautiful moments life has to offer. No matter where you are in your own journey, She encourages you to keep faith alive and honor the precious gems in your life.
