They are worthy of the work to which they belong, which has been most excellently presented typographically, and deserving of the place which it has taken in Mr. Van Nostrand's noble and extensive library of military publications. --Boston Daily Evening Traveller. It is needless to Bay anything in praise of Joarsl as a writer on the science of war. General Haixeck has laid the professional soldier and the student of military history under equal obligations by the service he has done to the cause of military literature in the preparation of this work for the press. His rare qualifications for the task thus undertaken will be acknowledged by all. The notes with which the text is illustrated by General Haixeck are not among the least of the merits of the publication, which, in this respect, has a...
