Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Superbly crafted and fiendishly original, Zen City, Iso is set in a surreal Buddhist world of 1940s mean streets, dance halls, hot blues and jazz, temples and spanking new imported bubble cars. Those terribly nice Imperial Japanese Army people are in town. Dancers are blackening their teeth geisha-style and a cool lady deals a mean hand of mahjong tiles at the back of a Chinese shop. Triad gangs fight it out on the docks while dead stars wander the disused lots of the Siamese film studio. The temple drains are being cleared. Out on the Plateau of the Ancients a cross-dressing Englishman puts the final touches to an extraordinary theme park. A mysterious ghost ship arrives in port. Introducing Orson Milo Palmer, a man without a plan. We sit at his hospital bedside while he is medicated to death by two doctors. Palmer is a full-time humourist, part-time Buddhist and one-time co-producer of British B films. He is being forced to return to the past by Miss Fromm. She wants him to confront the truth behind Operation Agarathi and a series of brutal, unsolved murders. Before it s too late.
