

The Moose House: The Devil in the Closet (Paperback)

By Larry Leochko

iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We used to sit up on the edge of the rocks facing the back of the house to see if we could catch a glimpse of some of the strange things that went on in that house. There would be shadows of who knows what shimmering past the windows, and faint sounds exiting the empty building. Larry Leochko is by far the most qualified author ever to write a book about the Moose House. His first hand accounts with the devil and all the entities that he faced are fascinating. Never before has a story ever been told like this about a town and a haunted house. This true story will live in your heart and soul for years to come. Its very much a must read. It was thirty years in the making. Larry was a Union publisher and editor plus he published newsletters for a local cab company. Larry is also a part time author of short stories. Larry was born and raised in Atikokan Ontario Canada and now resides in Thunder Bay Ontario Canada along with his wife and three...
