Tales of Foreign Lands Volume 2

By Fr. Joseph Spillmann

Angelus Press, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. New Large Softcover; Father Joseph Spillmann was born at Zug, Switzerland in 1842. He joined the Jesuits and in 1874 was ordained priest. Due to his poetic gifts he was assigned to work on various periodicals. Spillmann's literary activity resulted chiefly from his connection with these periodicals, especially the Katholische Missionen, which he edited from 1880-90. His "Tales of Foreign Lands" series contains 21 booklets, consisting of edifying and tastefully illustrated stories for the young. They have been translated into many languages. Volume Two combines four of these stories into a single volume. Large Softcover of 331 pages. The Stories: The Shipwreck- The world of the Irish lad Willy Brown is turned upside down when his sinister uncle appears on the doorstep.; Crosses and Crowns- The Christian spirit shines through where bloody persecution is still a threat to those who hold the faith of Christ.; Prince Arumugam- The progress of Arumugam towards Christianity, and his courage to profess his beliefs in the face of his father's opposition.; The Pirate's Prisoner- Francesco goes to await his father's return from the sea. Instead of meeting his father, pirates carry him off to their ship.
