But, Aholibamah I love our God less since his angel loved me ?ta even This cannot be of good; and though I know not That I do wrong, I feel a thousand fears Which are not ominous of nght. Aholibamah. Then wed thee Unto some son of clay, and toil and spin! There s J aphet loves thee well, hath loved thee long; Marry, and bringforth dust! Anah. I should have loved Azazel not less were he mortal, yet I am glad he 15 not. I can not outlive him. And when I think that his immortal wings Will one day hover o er the sepulchre Of the poor child of clay which so adored him As he adores the Highest, death becomes Le$ terrible; but yet I pity him; His grief will be of ages, or at least Mine would be such for him, were I the Seraph, And he the perishable. Aholijbamah. Rather say That he will single forth some other daughter Of Earth and love her as he once loved...
