If the 43 which have disappeared are counted, the average is reduced below 21/2 years. Truly their days are as the grass; and so are most of their projectors. Of Educational Journals there are several distinct types. The Official Organ. Among the earliest was the Official Organ of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. An excellent example of this was The District School Journal of the State of New York. 1840-1852. The District School Journal had been started March 25, 1840, at Geneva, by Francis Dwight, as an eight page quarto (9x11 1/2). The prospectus urges that, while so many journals are advocating the claims of parties and sects, it can need no apology to add one to the small number of them which are devoted to the interests of District Schools, but confesses that the real origin of the paper is the recommendation in Superintendent Spencer s last report, that New York have a paper, for official communication between the Department and the district officers. Mr. Spencer had said: In Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Michigan, there are journals devoted exclusively to the promotion of common school education. They are conducted under the superintendence of the officers charged with that subject, and are made the organs of communicating to the subordinate officers, to teachers, and to the inhabitants...
