Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Addresses and Papers on Life Insurance and Other Subjects The address on The Inception and Early Problems of Industrial Insurance was contributed to the semi-tenary issue of The Insurance Monitor in 1905. The limitations of space precluded adequate consideration of the historical and biographical facts connected with the foundation of The Prudential, emphasis having been placed upon the social and economic conditions giving rise to the successful development of a new thrift institution in America. For a more extended account, however, the History of The Prudential, published in 1900, may be consulted, but even in that work only scant justice has been done to the founders of the Company, who risked everything in what, at that time, was certainly a precarious venture in a new and untried field of insurance. It is to be hoped that some day a full account will be published, with biographical details of the early stockholders, directors, and executive officers, who, in hearty co-operation and with an abiding faith in its future, made of industrial insurance a practical business success, a beneficent social institution, and of The Prudential one of the foremost life insurance companies in the world.
