Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Speeches and Writings of Hon.: Thomas F. Marshall Whether we have acted prudently in this matter, whether it had been better for Mr. Marshall, that his writings, few as they are, Should have been left in their dispersed condition, the public must and will decide. NO criticism that we could pronounce in advance upon our own book could possibly change the case or affect the verdict. Yet we must be allowed to make one remark, as to the peculiar intellectual character of the author. His most distinctive trait is his versatility - not versatility Of principle, but of genius and of manner. Let any one read his report on Banking, and the Principles of Paper Currency, and then turn to the oration on the life and character Of Richard H. Mlenefee, - would he conjecture that they were from the same pen, the product of the same mind? Yet there is nothing in the entire series we have collected, which will give the faintest idea of his style as a public speaker - we mean what we call in Kentucky a stump-speaker. Perhaps a few passages from his letter to the Louisville Journal, a very few from his reply to the questions put to him when a candidate for Congress, in 1845, in relation to the Slave law, still fewer in reply to Mr. Adams, in 1842, may convey some shadowy notion of it. We have not made this compilation to Show what manner Of stump-speaker, popular orator, or declaimer he was, but to Show that in the intellectual scale, he is something higher, better, purer than all, Mr. Marshall himself has been frequently heard to say, that...
