iUniverse, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We live in a time where pop culture, media, and entertainment have been give precedence in establishing the mores in the lives of our youth. Therefore, when proceeding with a relationship, can you be sure it is what s right for you? And, can you really know what will last in your life? After many years of doing pastoral premarriage and marriage counseling, and seeing the many scenarios, we seek to help answer some of these questions in Dating: Dress Rehearsal for Divorce. We believe it is still possible, and crucial, to find God s choice for your life. Also, with practical tools we desire to show you how to lay a foundation to maintain and build what God has purposed for you. Dating: Dress Rehearsal for Divorce compares traditional dating verses courting, and looks at some of the mechanics that engagement should accomplish in your relationship. We even take a look at where love and intimacy find their place in the middles of all this. We invite you on a journey that is both challenging and rewarding. By taking a closer look at the prepackaged paradigm of dating you decide for yourself what you really want.
