Reviews

Completely essential read publication. It is really basic but excitement in the fifty percent of the book. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about in the event you ask me).

DEDALUS LTD, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Dedalus Hall of Fame Edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. Waddington employs a cheerful surrealism to convey the superhuman status of his cyclists and the designer violence of his killer. The encounters with death are funny rather than frightening and the narrator is omnipotent, stylish and amused. Waddington's descriptions of racing, and they are many and enthralling, have the rhythm and intensity of poetry. You're riding with your wheel an inch from the author's, carried along by the surge of the pack, normal life and normal people no more than a muted clamour on the roadside. It's exhilarating stuff. Joe Cogan in The Independent on Sunday Racy thriller in which top pros in the Tour de France become ensnared in a Faustian pact with a sports doctor who guarantees success but demands the ultimate price: their lives. Appeared in 1998, the year of the sport's biggest ever drug scandal. It still seems grimly apposite. William Fotheringham's Top 10 Cycling Novels in The Guardian.
