

Solana del Mar

By Steve Marsh

XLIBRIS. Paperback. Condition: New. 372 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Nothing leaves Solana but the hangover. The party starts at high noon in the island tropics of Belize until Sander and MarJean stumble on a smuggling cartel led by an Anglo-Caribbean banker and a shadowy arms trader hiding somewhere on exotic Albacore Caye. . . Chaos erupts when a thieving monkey makes off with Sanders priceless gold doubloon, the key to an ancient Spanish hoard. While in hot pursuit, Sanders odyssey begins as the banker struggles to evacuate his beloved Solana del Mar in a flimsy conspiracy to unleash a portable new super-weapon assuring global upheaval both affordable and convenient for discriminating terrorists everywhere. If only a platoon of international spooks can infiltrate a beach-rave gone berserk, save the planet, and liberate Solana del Mar on a remote island where deranged youth and Viagratic party hounds run on vapors in a wild, moonlit paradise. . . An offbeat, outrageous cast of supporting characters keeps this intoxicating mystery thriller pulsing with new developments at every turn. . . Gripping, suspenseful, hilarious, sometimes reflecting a retro-chic bit of an Ian Fleming adventure, Solana del Mar is a magical Caribbean world with an exotic...
