

Little Mill on Beaver Creek (Paperback)

By Jackie Haines

BookBaby, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In 1913, there is a water-powered sawmill in rural southeast Guilford County, North Carolina. The Gilmer family, including Samuel, his wife Anna and their children live with Anna s father, Lee Hanner, in the home beside this mill. The two men own and operate the sawmill, and the entire family works together to maintain this farm. The story begins during a winter blizzard in late February, flowing throughout the year 1913, culminating in a Thanksgiving celebration. Will Granger, who has lived by himself on the next farm for three years now is so disagreeable that he has alienated his neighbors. The Gilmer youngsters attend a one-room school, where tiny six-year-old Lillie faces a bully. Molly, Jake, and Lillie work hard around the farm and sometimes get into frightening situations. Young men in 1913 learn how to use firearms at an early age; they help provide food for their families and protect them. Jake, age ten, is skillful with his shotgun, but gets into trouble when he accidentally trespasses on land of their angry neighbor. Molly, a mature sixteen- year-old, is quite bright, and she is recommended by their teacher...
