Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in.What happens when your life finally hits the brink of despair and the only foreseeable change in your life is a sweat-stained mattress in detox, a jail cell or, for some of you hardcore cases, a cozy coffin Im just posing a question; not judging you. I have been to two out of three and come close to the third countless times. Im just a guy with experience and a solution. This book is considered the scared straight of the Christian self-help genre. The Invisible Path is a provocative, straight forward guide showing you how it is possible to cross over from the path of a messed up life, to that of a blessed life. It doesnt matter if people have placed you beyond the reach of redemption or even if your family has (secretly) given up on you after years of agonizing and helplessly watching the cycle of addiction invariably rob you of your life. It doesnt matter if everyone has kicked you to the curb because you are a friggen degenerate. None of this matters; because there is...
