CHINA S QUASI-SUPERPOWER DIPLOMACY: PROSPECTS AND PITFALLS (PAPERBACK)

The Jamestown Foundation, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This report looks at China s much-enhanced projection of hard and soft power, particularly ways in which Beijing is waging quasi-superpower diplomacy to bolster the country s preeminence in the new world order. The diplomatic and geopolitical implications of China s precipitous rise are thoroughly appraised.2009 will go down in history as a watershed for the epochal expansion of China s global influence. With its economy predicted to grow at 8 percent despite the world financial crisis, the People s Republic of China is widely regarded as a prime locomotive for economic recovery worldwide. The People s Liberation Army is building nuclear submarines and aircraft carriers, and the country s first astronaut is expected to set foot on the moon before 2015. Taking advantage of the damage that the financial crisis has dealt the American laissez-faire system, the Chinese Communist Party is also gunning for a novel international financial architecture, or one that is not dominated by the United States.
