Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.After God delivered Israel from Egyptian slavery, He led them to the wilderness of the Red Sea. God tested their faith and refined their character there. In the wilderness, Israel saw the leading and provision of God. He directed every step by a cloud and a pillar of fire. They experienced the power of His hand as He delivered them from the army of Egypt at the Red Sea. Israel watched God provide manna from heaven to sustain them day after day. They watched Him bring water from a rock to quench their thirst. What Bible school or seminary could give them such an education? Through all these experiences, God was shaping their minds and hearts and revealing Himself to Israel. Just as God led Israel through the wilderness, He wants to lead you through every wilderness you face. Sometimes, God allows us to face dark and difficult times to show us the reality of Who He is. When everything seems hopeless, He will break through the storm clouds in glorious light. Join us in studying how God led His people. Learn to trust His loving direction in your own life. Features - 5 lessons about how God works in His people s hearts - Prayer starters and application questions included - Perfect for small-group and church Bible studies Benefits - Learn about God s greater purpose for your life - Trust the loving direction and will of the Lord - Recognize that God understands our weaknesses, temptations, and needs - Discover the dangers of relying on human education and experience - Choose to obey God s leading for your life - Learn to trust in God s power for...
