The Lilliput Press Ltd, Ireland, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In the summer of 2000, a 28 year-old journalist returned from New York to launch a stylish, intelligent magazine in the booming capital of the Celtic Tiger. It was an instant failure, and two years later The Dubliner was close to bankruptcy. For the next five years Trevor White struggled to keep the magazine afloat. Along the way he managed to alienate nearly every minority in Ireland and incense every chef in Dublin. The Dubliner Diaries is an awkward history of the Celtic Tiger by a man who tried to catch it, and ended up being mauled.
