She thought she had a good chance of undoing it at her granddaughter's wedding, but when things went awry, she pinned her hopes on her grandson Noah's wedding. Noah's fiancée called things off at the stag, but when his ex's younger step-sister and long-time friend, Callie, tries to cheer him up, Noah finds the lines between friendship and love blurring. A shared non-honeymoon, some secret dating, and a crazy Hungarian family might not sound like the normal way to start a relationship, but Callie and Noah learn that love tends to find its own way.
