Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is a collection of inspirational poems and essays. They depict my passion for social justice, the rebirth of spirituality and my burning desire to lift the self-esteem and confidence of the younger generation. It opens a window of opportunity to boost the fading desire, the dwindling zealously and waning determination of young adults who have lost hope in pursuing their dreams to become achievers, and who question the loyalty of their peers. The poetries serve as a stimulus to encourage our young people to revamp their self-confidence and booster their potentials. The book assembles topics that form a stairway of encouragement, confidence and hope for those left behind; for those who are on the edge of losing their identity and those who have misplaced their determination to pursue their dreams. It emphasizes the importance of merging the body, mind and spirit as one complete being that empowers the individual to ascend to unreachable heights. The essay Reflection describes the urgency and importance of answering the question; who am I? It states, I came into this world a solitary soul. I came into the world possessing one body and one mind. This is the strength of the individual. The poem A Child is an affirmation that I am a child of the Great Almighty and I am child of His Royal Family. It reminds us that we are not ordinary people, and we do have a supernatural father. I am Unique is a fascinating upbeat poem that was written for the children of the world. It emphasizes how exclusive, rare and special each child is. It reads, I am no ordinary boy or girl; I am a priceless nugget of gold chosen...
