THE BUTCHER AND THE FLAME

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 270 pages. Jim Lyon is a Private Investigator with a knack for finding trouble. His day starts out by thwarting a bar room robbery. Later, he invites himself into a hostage situation at a multi-story office building. In the course of the rescue, he meets Flame Vasquez, who quickly impresses him with her looks and no-nonsense approach to survival. As a natural course of events, he also meets the local News Anchor, Meg Jackson, who has a vested interest in The Butcher, a serial killer terrorizing the city. The Butcher is a practiced killer who uses the drainage tunnels as his private highway, giving him an almost supernatural aura based on his abilities to leave a crime scene without being seen. When the serial killer starts attacking and killing friends of Jim Lyon, the trouble-prone private investigator takes an active interest in the madman. He writes a computer program that allows him to predict when the killer will strike again. As he kills, The Butcher becomes increasingly obsessed with his supernatural abilities to escape capture and begins baiting the local News Anchor. As the terror continues, Meg becomes haunted by nightmares of The Butcher and she decides to use Jim as bait to catch The Butcher. Meg accidentally slips Jims name, giving The Butcher a new target. The Butcher attacks Meg in her apartment. Armed with the knowledge of when and where The Butcher will strike, Jim acts to catch The Butcher. Standing in a raging thunderstorm for hours, Jim finally follows The Butcher into the home of his next victim. In the ensuing battle, Jim shoots The Butcher with a small caliber pistol. The Butcher jumps through the window and escapes. Jim takes Flame to the gun shop. The...
